

PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT – MAIS DEFENCE

The general public is hereby informed that six candidates will be taking their Master of Arts in Information Studies (MAIS) defence examination on Friday 26th September, 2025.

The names of candidates and their respective titles are detailed below:

SN	Name	Registration Number	Dissertation Title
1.	Yusuf Dismas	TU/DARCO/MAIS/023/008	Assessment of the Accessibility of Electronic Education Resources Among Secondary School Teachers in Dar es Salaam: A Case Study of Kigamboni District
2.	Johana John	TU/DARCO/MAIS/023/001	An Assessment of the Use of Social Media in Selected Academic Libraries in Dar es Salaam Region, Tanzania
3.	Rukia Majura	TU/DARCO/MAIS/023/004	An Assessment on Postgraduate Students' Access to and Use of Institutional Repositories: The Case of The Open University of Tanzania and Mzumbe University
4.	Shabani Kangomba	TU/DARCO/MAIS/021/005	An Assessment of Fishers' Access and Use of Meteorological Weather Forecasting Information: A Case of the Ferry Fish Market in Dar es Salaam City Coastline, Tanzania
5.	Ombenny Kamwela	TU/DARCO/MAIS/023/006	Availability and Use of Library Infrastructure and Assistive Technologies for People with Disabilities in Selected Higher Learning Institutions in Tanzania
6.	Aneth Hyera	TU/DARCO/MAIS/021/004	An assessment of the provision and access to health insurance in Tanzania: A case of the National Health Insurance Fund

The event will take place in the Board Room at 09:00 a.m.

You are all very welcome!

Dr. Deoscorous B. Ndoloi
Director – Postgraduate Studies, Research and Publication
For DVC – Academics, Research and Public Engagement

